6. Gender Balance, Diversity and Irish Language Proficiency

Under section 39(1) of the Act the decision of the Commission to recommend a candidate for appointment shall be based on merit. Subject to that requirement, it is provided by section 39(2) that in performing the function of selection and recommendation for appointment, account shall be taken, to the extent feasible and practicable, of the objectives that the membership of the judiciary in each court should

- (a) comprise equal numbers of male and female members,
- (b) reflect the diversity of the population of the State as a whole and

- (c) include a sufficient number of judges with a proficiency in Irish to meet the needs of users of each court as identified by the Commission after consultation with the Courts Service, the President of the High Court, the President of the Circuit Court and the President of the District Court.

Please identify any matters which you consider may be of assistance to the Commission in respect of these objectives.
